Mission of the Bureau of Prisons
It is the mission of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to protect society by confining offenders in the controlled environments of prisons and community-based facilities that are safe, humane, cost-efficient, and appropriately secure, and that provide work and other self-improvement opportunities to assist offenders in becoming law-abiding citizens.

BOP Reentry Events

FCC Allenwood

L. to R.: Warden Delbert Sauers; Warden Monica Recktenwald; Warden Donna Zickefoose; and Magistrate Judge William Arbuckle

FCC Allenwood Complex Warden Donna Zickefoose, along with Wardens Monica Recktenwald (FCI) and Delbert Sauers (LSCI), and several staff members recently attended a Court Assisted Reentry (CARE) program team meeting and court session for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. After participating in a discussion about the CARE Program, the staff observed the Reentry Court overseen by The Honorable William I. Arbuckle, Magistrate Judge. Reentry Court represents a comprehensive approach to working with supervised releasees. Those who successfully fulfill the program requirements graduate from the program and are often rewarded with a reduced term of supervised release.

FCC Allenwood & FCI Schuylkill

FCC Allenwood and FCI Schuylkill Reentry Affairs Coordinators recently conducted two training sessions for U.S. Probation Office staff for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. The training focused on interpreting information contained in Inmate Skills Development System reports and reviewing the various reentry initiatives at FCC Allenwood. Probation Office staff had the opportunity to exchange information with Bureau staff and discussed the new Post-Conviction

Risk Assessments that are used to evaluate individual risks and needs while inmates are on supervised release.

FCI Fort Dix

FCI Fort Dix staff recently participated in a pre-entry/reentry workshop. The goal of the workshop was to create a partnership between U.S. Pre-Trial Services and the Bureau and to establish a program designed to assist newly designated offenders by addressing their needs and issues prior to their incarceration. The workshop included panelists from the U.S. Pre-Trial Office and the U.S. Probation Office for the District of

New Jersey. Topics included a discussion of the pre-trial process, voluntary surrender, and information about what newly sentenced offenders should expect upon their commitment to federal prison. Chief U.S. Pre-Trial Services Officer Christine Dozier spearheaded the program, with assistance from U.S. Pre-Trial Officers Barbara Hutchinson and Michele Roman, FCI Fort Dix Reentry Affairs Coordinator Jeff Keller and Case Manager Charles Wilson. Additional workshops are planned for March and June 2013.
