DOJ Officials Visit MDC Guaynabo

On January 2, Tony West, Acting Associate Attorney General, along with other DOJ officials visited MDC Guaynabo. After receiving an overview of the institution, the group toured housing units. They were impressed with institution sanitation, staff professionalism, and the variety of reentry programs available to the inmate population.

FCI Bennettsville Holds Mentor/Protégé Graduation

“Mentor of the Year” Cindy Ojeda (l) and “Protégé of the Year” Maria Cooper (r)

On December 12, 2012, FCI Bennettsville held a graduation ceremony for 20 staff mentors and 20 protégés who successfully completed the 2012 Staff Mentor program. The theme of the program was “Investing in Our Legacy.” Former FCI Bennettsville Executive Assistant (and recent BOP retiree) Darlene Buchannan, who started the FCI Bennettsville Staff Mentor program, was the guest speaker. She spoke about how the program was implemented and congratulated everyone who continues to support the program.

During the graduation program, Unit Secretary Maria Cooper was selected as “Protégé of the Year” for her diligence in pursuing her personal and professional goals, and surpassing the expectations of the program. Chief Psychologist Cindy Ojeda was selected as “Mentor of the Year” for her ability to motivate staff. Each mentor received a Certificate of Appreciation for their contributions, and each protégé received a Certificate of Accomplishment for completing the program.

Mission of the Bureau of Prisons

It is the mission of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to protect society by confining offenders in the controlled environments of prisons and community-based facilities that are safe, humane, cost-efficient, and appropriately secure, and that provide work and other self-improvement opportunities to assist offenders in becoming law-abiding citizens.

FCI Schuylkill Staff Member Speaks to University Students

On December 5, 2012, FCI Schuylkill Reentry Affairs Coordinator Suzanne Mitchell was invited to speak to 50 students in an Administration of Justice class at Penn State University's Schuylkill Haven campus. In November, Ms. Mitchell spoke to 195 students at Bloomsburg University's Social Work program. Ms. Mitchell spoke about the Bureau's reentry initiatives, the role of Reentry Affairs Coordinators, the importance of volunteers, and social work in the field of corrections.

FCI Terminal Island Holds Inmate Health Fair

On December 6, 2012, FCI Terminal Island held its annual inmate health fair. Education and Health Services department staff provided information on the importance of reading food nutrition labels, making healthy food choices, and using proper serving sizes. Pharmacy staff discussed Over-The-Counter medication and Psychology staff spoke about mental wellness. A variety of health information was made available to inmates; they were also provided an opportunity to receive the flu vaccine, and blood pressure and blood sugar level screenings.

FPC Bryan's UNICOR Service Leadership Program

In 2010, FPC Bryan UNICOR Factory Manager Jenita Rayford developed a Service Leadership course that offers an opportunity for training, growth, and development for inmates employed by UNICOR. The course is designed to assist with reentry efforts and stresses leadership, self-motivation, and service. Due to the tremendous response to the program, it is now offered to the entire inmate population. Inmate participants from previous classes now assist with instruction and help to communicate the rewarding benefits of participating in this project.

This year, the Service Leadership Class was able to assist the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services, Aggieland Pregnancy Outreach, Milam Elementary School, and Still Creek Ranch (a home for displaced children). With over 300 skeins of donated yarn and 1,000 hours of volunteer labor, inmates made backpacks, diaper bags, hats and scarves, booties, beanies, footballs, bears, dolls, and lambs. In conjunction with the service project, a Scholastic Book fair was held at the institution and class participants donated more than $500 worth of books to the organizations.

Staff Serve the Community During the Holidays

FCC Butner

L. to R.: LCDR Brian Parker, LCDR Channel Mangum, Affirmative Action Coordinator Amy Bullock, and LT Derek Alberding

During December 2012, FCC Butner's Affirmative Action Committee and PHS staff sponsored a "Kaps for Kids" donation drive. "Kaps for Kids," a community outreach program, provides caps for children who have lost their hair from chemotherapy treatment. BOP and PHS staff collected more than 150 caps that were donated to Pediatric Centers at Duke University and the University of North Carolina.

FCI Cumberland

During the holiday season, FCI Cumberland staff collected care packages for clients of the Willow Creek Adult Care Center. The center provides support services for anyone 16 years of age or older who has difficulty with two or more activities of daily living, such as cooking, bathing, and dressing, and is taking medication. The center's mission is to assist people in maintaining or improving their quality of life, helping them remain in the community, and avoiding premature institutionalization. The majority of the clients live at or below the poverty level.

This is the fourth year that FCI Cumberland has provided holiday care packages. The packages contain basic hygiene items such as tissues, hand cream, soap, deodorant, toothbrushes and toothpaste, shampoo, and lip balm. They also included puzzle books, air fresheners, and packaged food items such as oatmeal, hot chocolate, crackers, cookies, candy, and fresh fruit.

USP Lee

USP Lee's Federal Women's Program (FWP) sponsored a gift drive during the holidays to benefit an "Angel Tree" program for three local elementary schools. Staff donated gifts for more than 40 children. FWP Manager Mona Woods coordinated the event with assistance from Unit Secretary Brenda Vicars and Financial Specialist Ashley Moles.

Angel Tree donations

FCI Oxford

During the holidays, FCI Oxford staff participated in an "Angel Tree" program sponsored by the Salvation Army to benefit economically disadvantaged children in Adams and Marquette Counties. When the "Angel Tree" program began in 1987, it served 45 children; today, more than 450 children in Adams County alone received gifts. A survey of participating families showed that for 60 percent of them the "Angel Tree" program was the only source of holiday presents for the children. FCI Oxford staff donated gifts, clothing, blankets, and toys for 60 children in the community.
