Mission of the Bureau of Prisons

It is the mission of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to protect society by confining offenders in the controlled environments of prisons and community-based facilities that are safe, humane, cost-efficient, and appropriately secure, and that provide work and other self-improvement opportunities to assist offenders in becoming law-abiding citizens.

In Memoriam: Retired Assistant Director Bruce Sasser

On March 30, Bruce Sasser, retired Assistant Director, Administration Division, passed away following heart surgery. He was 62 years old. Mr. Sasser, who had a 37 year government career, served as the Bureau's Assistant Director for Administration and Chief Financial Officer from 1999 until his retirement in January 2008.

Mr. Sasser began his government career with the National Park Service while he was in college. After graduating, he was selected for a management intern program with the General Services Administration's Public Buildings Service. He then joined the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), and later served as Director of the Office of Policy and Programs in the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Refugee Program. From 1986 until 1999, Mr. Sasser served as Chief of the State-USIA Branch in OMB's International Affairs Division.

During Mr. Sasser's tenure as Assistant Director, the Bureau added 28 new institutions, along with 18,000 contract beds; the agency's budget grew from $2.8 billion in FY 1999 to $5.1 billion in FY 2008. Under Mr. Sasser's leadership, the Bureau received Unqualified (clean) Opinions on its audited financial statements for nine consecutive years—the best record in the Department of Justice. During his career, Mr. Sasser received a number of awards, including the OMB Professional Achievement Award, the Secretary of State's Superior Honor Award, and the Presidential Rank Award for Meritorious Service.

He is survived by his wife, Janet, and daughter, Melanie. Cards and letters of condolence can be sent to the attention of Jackie Gordon, Administration Division, Budget Development Office, Administration Division, Federal Bureau of Prisons, 320 First Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20534.

parents. More than 400 inmates participated, raising more than $1,000.

In addition, the inmate population was recognized for donating more than 250 pounds of food that was used to provide meals to needy people in the coastal counties of South Carolina.
