Special Emphasis Programs

USP Marion

On April 2, USP Marion's Federal Women's Program (FWP) sponsored a Women's Retreat at the institution's staff training center. Twenty-six female staff attended the program that included a panel discussion about female supervisors. The Honorable Carolyn Bailey Smoot, Resident Circuit Court Judge for Williamson County, was guest speaker. Judge Smoot spoke about her current position and responsibilities and discussed some of the obstacles she has encountered. ## Staff Serve the Community

FCI Sheridan

On March 28, as David Pedraza, FCI Sheridan Assistant Lock and Security Specialist, was leaving his home, he saw a neighbor, unconscious and bleeding, laying in the doorway of a nearby apartment. As he approached the man, he saw smoke coming from the apartment. Mr. Pedraza immediately pulled the man to a safer place and closed the door to help contain the fire. After calling 911, Mr. Pedraza began knocking on the doors of the apartment complex to evacuate the residents. Fire and emergency personnel arrived quickly, extinguished the fire, and transported the injured man to the hospital. Due to Mr. Pedraza's quick thinking and actions, the fire was contained to one apartment and no one else was injured.
