HIGHLIGHTS

2012 Correctional Workers' Week Memorial Service

On May 8, 2012, the Bureau held its annual Correctional Workers' Week Memorial Service in honor of the Bureau of Prisons' staff members killed in the line of duty. U.S. Attorney General Eric H. Holder, Jr., joined Central Office staff, other Bureau personnel, and invited guests at the tribute that was held at the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Wilmoth (l) and Director Samuels (r)

In keeping with the agency's practice of paying tribute to one specific BOP hero each year, the Bureau recognized Gregory J. Gunter, Maintenance Mechanic General Foreman at FCI Petersburg, Virginia, whose untimely death occurred on December 25, 1982. Mr. Gunter's family was unable to join Central Office staff for the service of remembrance, but their family friend, FCC Petersburg's William Wilmoth, Jr., attended on their behalf.

Blake R. Davis, Assistant Director, Correctional Programs Division, served as Master of Ceremonies and Rev. Dr. Michael R. Smith, Sr., Chaplaincy Administrator, offered the invocation and benediction. Chris McConnell, Emergency Management Specialist, presented the "In Memoriam."

Attorney General Holder's words were inspiring as he suggested the audience "... let the stories of each of our fallen heroes – and their unwavering faith in our nation, in the integrity of our justice system, and in the power of public service – continue to guide our steps forward." Director Charles E. Samuels, Jr., reminded those in attendance of how the BOP's 24 fallen staff members served "both in life and in death." In recognizing this year's special honoree, Director Samuels referred to Gregory Gunter as the man American writer Joseph Campbell envisioned when he described a hero

Regional Directors Raymond E. Holt & Robert E. McFadden to Retire

Southeast Regional Director Raymond E. Holt

RD Raymond E. Holt

After 32 years of distinguished public service in the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), Raymond E. Holt, Southeast Regional Director, announced his plans to retire effective July 1, 2012.

Mr. Holt began his career with the Bureau in 1980 as a correctional officer at the Federal Correctional Institution El Reno, Oklahoma. Since then, he was promoted to various positions of increasing responsibility within Correctional Services, serving at the Metropolitan Correctional Center (MCC) Tucson, Arizona, U.S. Penitentiary (USP) Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, and MCC New York, New York. He was selected as Associate Warden for MCC

New York, and later served in the same position at USP Marion, Illinois. In 1990, he became Correctional Services Administrator with the Correctional Programs Division in the Central Office. From 1993-2001, Mr. Holt served as Warden for MCC Chicago, Illinois, USP Beaumont, Texas, and USP Florence, Colorado. Mr. Holt assumed his current position as Regional Director for the Southeast Region in June 2001.

In his current capacity, Mr. Holt is responsible for providing leadership to and overseeing all BOP activities in the Southeast region, including its $800.7 million operating budget. With a current staff complement in excess of 6,500, the region houses and provides reentry preparation services to more than 40,900 inmates.

While his leadership has resulted in numerous accomplishments and left a lasting mark on the agency, Mr. Holt is most proud of the following achievements:

- Being selected as a GS-08 Senior Officer Specialist,
- Being selected as a Lieutenant, and
- Developing the Correctional Services uniform.

Mr. Holt was the recipient of the Norman A. Carlson Director's Award in 1993, and the Wardens Award for Excellence in Prison Management in 2000. In 2004, RD Holt was awarded the Presidential Rank for Meritorious Service for his numerous accomplishments.

On RD Holt's decision to retire, Director Charles E. Samuels, Jr., stated: "Ray Holt has been a key contributor to the Bureau's Executive Staff for 11 years; during this time he has helped guide our agency through many major challenges. Throughout his career, he has often pursued his interest in custody issues by exploring and developing strategies to enhance operational security and protection of the public, our staff, and the inmates in our charge. The agency functions more safely because of his efforts and his dedication to the Bureau's mission. The mentoring he has provided to agency leaders over the years will ensure that we continue to move in the right direction after his retirement in July. I thank him for his exceptional service and wish him all the best."

RD Holt's retirement event is scheduled for Thursday, May 17, 2012, at the Hilton Hotel (Atlanta Airport). Details are available by contacting Kathy P. Lane, SER Executive Assistant, at 678-686-1203 or via e-mail: SERO/ExecAssistant~@bop.gov.

Western Regional Director Robert E. McFadden

After more than 27 years of distinguished public service in the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), Robert E. McFadden, Western Regional Director, announced his plans to retire effective July 31, 2012.

RD Robert E. McFadden

Mr. McFadden began his career in 1985 as a correctional officer at the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI) Phoenix, Arizona. He went on to hold positions of increasing responsibility at the Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Baltimore, Maryland, residential reentry management (RRM) offices; the Federal Medical Center Rochester, Minnesota; FCI Phoenix; and the Metropolitan Correctional Center San Diego, California.

Mr. McFadden was first named Warden for the Federal Prison Camp, Yankton, South Dakota, in August 2000. He continued his executive career path, serving as Deputy Regional Director of the Southeast Region from December 2001 to April 2003. Mr. McFadden subsequently served as Warden at FCI Jesup, Georgia, and the Medical Center for Federal Prisoners in Springfield, Missouri, receiving his appointment to the Senior Executive Service in October 2003. In April 2006, Mr. McFadden became the 12th Regional Director for the Western Region.

In his current capacity, Mr. McFadden is responsible for providing leadership to and overseeing all BOP activities in the Western region, including its $722.6 million operating budget. With a current staff complement in excess of 5,000, the region houses and provides reentry preparation services to more than 26,500 inmates.

His leadership has resulted in numerous accomplishments:

- The establishment of specialized units that contribute greatly to secure agency operations and public safety,
- Enhanced partnerships with federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies,
- Implementation of a recruitment plan – called the “California 4”– to revitalize the 4 WXR institutions struggling with hiring challenges.

Mr. McFadden has received many prestigious awards over the course of his career that have included the Information, Policy and Public Affairs Division Assistant Director’s Award for commitment to excellence and exemplary performance (1992). Most recently, in 2011, he was awarded the Presidential Rank of Meritorious Senior Professional/Executive for his sustained accomplishments.

Director Charles E. Samuels, Jr., commented: "Robert McFadden’s career has been one of exemplary dedication to the agency’s mission, commitment to staff, and service to the public. His leadership as Regional Director has resulted in many notable accomplishments, including environmental and cost avoidance initiatives that will have lasting effects on the agency. His input, contributions, support, and perspective will be missed. I thank him for his years of outstanding service and wish him the very best during retirement."

RD McFadden’s retirement event is scheduled for July 13, 2012. Details are available by contacting Chuck Ringwood, WXR Executive Assistant, at 209-956-9712.

Congratulations RD Holt, and RD McFadden and best wishes on your retirement!

FDC Philadelphia’s Inside-Out Prison Exchange Program

FDC Philadelphia recently completed its first Inside-Out Prison Exchange Program for female inmates. Students from Villanova’s Law School and several inmates spent 15 weeks working and studying together to gain a better understanding of incarceration, victimization, and restorative justice. Peer teaching and coaching were conducted in an environment that allowed inmates to express their feelings and views about incarceration and the justice system. Dr. Penelope Pether, from Villanova’s Law School, facilitated the program.

Inmates wrote reflective papers throughout the course; their final assignment was working with the law students on a collaborative research project focusing on reentry.

The closing ceremony was held on April 24; guest speakers included: The Honorable L. Felipe Restrepo, U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania; Dr. Pether; John Gotanda, Dean, Villanova Law School; Steve Chanenson, Associate Dean, Villanova Law School; and Associate Warden

B. E. Blackmon. A law student and an inmate spoke about the impact of the Inside-Out Exchange Program; both noted the course helped them break down barriers and stereotypes, and they came away from the program with a better understanding of the criminal justice system and the importance of reentry.

FCC Allenwood and USP Lewisburg Hold Emergency Preparedness Day

On April 25, the consolidated FCC Allenwood/USP Lewisburg Crisis Support Team held its 6th annual "Emergency Preparedness Day" for Bureau staff and the local community at the Complex's staff training center. Several agencies joined forces with the BOP to provide education on institutional and environmental emergencies. Participating agencies included: the Pennsylvania State Police, Mounted Police, Game Commission, local police and EMS, local fire departments, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

More than 500 community members, law enforcement officials, and criminal justice students attended the event. Topics included emergency response, search and rescue techniques, the proper care for animals during a crisis, gun safety, and other safety and environmental issues. Special Operation Response teams, Disturbance Control teams, Hostage Negotiation teams and Breaching teams from FCC Allenwood, USP Lewisburg, FCI Schuylkill, FCI Loretto, and USP Canaan provided numerous demonstrations and classes.

FCC Tucson Holds Victims' Rights Awareness Program

On April 25, FCC Tucson's Federal Women's Program and Asian/Pacific Islander/Native American Program sponsored a Victims' Rights Awareness program in recognition of Sexual Assault Awareness Month, Child Abuse Prevention Month, and Victims' Rights Week. Vanessa Helms of the Pima County Attorney's Victim Services Division, was guest speaker. She spoke about the history of victims' rights, and the services her agency provides to victims of crime in the community.

Ms. Helms provided a detailed history of her agency -- the first in the nation to provide comprehensive assistance to crime victims. The agency has more than 25 staff and 120 volunteers on call 24 hours a day, and have worked with victims of the January 8, 2011, shooting of Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords; the September 11th terrorist attacks; the Oklahoma City bombing; and the war in Bosnia. Correctional Systems Manager Barbie Serrato, a volunteer with the Victim Services Division, spoke about her experience working under Ms. Helm's guidance.
