HIGHLIGHTS

South Central Regional Director Gerardo Maldonado to Retire

South Central Regional Director (RD) Gerardo Maldonado, Jr., has announced his decision to retire on August 31, 2012, after 33 years of BOP service. Mr. Maldonado began his career with the Bureau in 1979, as a Correctional Officer at El Reno. He subsequently served in positions of increasing responsibility at FCI La Tuna; FCI Talladega, MDC New York; FCI Three Rivers; and FCI Bastrop.

He was first selected to serve as Associate Warden at FPC El Paso, then later at USP Leavenworth. Mr. Maldonado was later named Warden for FCI Estill, and subsequently served as Warden for USP Atlanta, from June 2004 until August 2005, when he assumed his current position.

In his current capacity, RD Maldonado is responsible for providing leadership to and overseeing all BOP activities in the South Central region, including its $860 million operating budget. With a current staff complement of 5,945, the region houses and provides reentry preparation services to almost 35,000 inmates.

Throughout his career, Mr. Maldonado has always put staff first and strongly supported staff training. During his tenure, he significantly enhanced security features and emergency preparedness throughout the SCR; he was instrumental in activating a Special Management Unit at FCC Oakdale. Additionally, he is responsible for the development of the Center Tower Training DVD that is now used BOP-wide to carry out this training.

Mr. Maldonado is a native of west Texas. He attended the University of El Paso, where he pursued a degree in criminal justice. He received the 2002 Federal Bureau of Prisons' New Warden of the Year Award.

Mission of the Bureau of Prisons

It is the mission of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to protect society by confining offenders in the controlled environments of prisons and community-based facilities that are safe, humane, cost-efficient, and appropriately secure, and that provide work and other self-improvement opportunities to assist offenders in becoming law-abiding citizens.

Regarding Regional Director Maldonado's decision to retire, Director Charles E. Samuels, Jr., commented: "Throughout his 33-year career, Jerry Maldonado has been highly effective, leading by example, and setting high professional standards for others to follow. The impact of his efforts in the areas of security and emergency preparedness will continue long into the future. I wish him the very best in his retirement."

His retirement event has been scheduled for August 3, 2012. For more information, contact Shannon Phelps, SCRO Executive Assistant, at 214-224-3404.

Incoming South Central Regional Director-Designee: Jeffery A. Keller

South Central Regional Director-Designee Jeffery A. Keller

USP Atlanta Warden Jeffery A. Keller began his Bureau career in May 1990, as a Correctional Officer at FCI Big Spring. He subsequently served in positions of increasing responsibility at ADX Florence, FCI Beaumont, FCI Cumberland, FCC Florence, and the North Central Regional Office. He was first selected as Associate Warden at USMCFP Springfield and then later at USP Marion. Mr. Keller was later named Warden for FPC Montgomery and was named to his current position as Warden at USP Atlanta in 2010.

Mr. Keller studied Criminal Justice at Howard College in Texas. In 2010, he joined the ranks of the Senior Executive Service.

On the selection of Warden Keller, Director Samuels noted: "I am pleased to appoint Jeff Keller as Regional Director for the South Central Region. He comes to the Executive Staff with 22 years of exceptional service to the Bureau, with a broad range of experiences and strong leadership skills. I look forward to working more closely with him."

Congratulations and best wishes to both!

FPC Duluth Staff Member Helps Rescue Child

On June 11, FPC Duluth IT Specialist Tom Crossmon, who is Captain of the St. Louis County Minnesota Rescue Squad, was notified of a possible drowning at Lake Superior's Park Point. When Mr. Crossmon arrived at the scene, he was informed that rescue personnel had established a good "last location" for a 13-year old boy who had gone underwater and had not resurfaced. Mr. Crossmon deployed a Remotely Operated Vehicle (ROV), equipped with a camera and manipulative arm, approximately 10 feet below the water surface. The ROV located the boy, and Mr. Crossmon was able to attach the ROV arm to the boy's swim trunks and lift the boy to the surface. The boy was carried to a waiting ambulance where life-saving procedures were performed. The boy was resuscitated and is receiving medical care. This is the first documented underwater rescue by any person using the ROV device.

FCI Berlin Staff Member Receives Civilian Award

On May 23, FCI Berlin Correctional Counselor Dennis Holmes was recognized by the Danbury Connecticut Police Department for his efforts in helping a police officer subdue a suspect during a drug arrest.

In August 2011, Mr. Holmes and his family were driving through Danbury when he observed a plain clothes police officer struggling with a suspect. As Mr. Holmes got out of his vehicle and identified himself as federal law enforcement, the police officer was knocked to the ground, and the suspect tried to escape. Mr. Holmes gave chase and was able to catch the suspect and detain him until additional police arrived. His quick actions allowed the police to recover money and drugs the suspect attempted to dispose of as he fled.

Institutions Host Visits by United States Attorneys

FCI Beckley

L. to R.: Steve Ruby, AUSA; John File, AUSA;
R. Booth Goodwin, II, U.S. Attorney; Warden Joel Ziegler;
Anthony Hussion, Special Investigative Agent; and AUSA Steve Loew

On June 7, FCI Beckley hosted a visit by the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of West Virginia. The Honorable Booth Goodwin, United States Attorney, and Assistant United States Attorneys John File, Steve Loew, and Steve Ruby, met with Warden Joel Ziegler and the institution's executive staff and toured the facility. The group was impressed with the variety of inmate programs and staff professionalism.

USP Lee

L. to R.: front row: Warden Chris Zych; USA Timothy Heaphy;
Gwen Mason, Community Outreach Coordinator; back row:
Susan Harding, Acting Executive Assistant; AW Hardy Chain;
AW Anne Mary Carter; and Captain Mark Foreman

On June 7, The Honorable Timothy J. Heaphy, United States Attorney for the Western Region of Virginia, and his staff member, Gwen Mason, Community Outreach Coordinator, visited USP Lee. They toured the institution and satellite camp, observed a SORT team demonstration and had lunch with Community Relations Board (CRB) members.

During the visit, Mr. Heaphy met with participants and volunteers at the institution's mock job fair and encouraged inmates to actively participate in the reentry process by taking advantage of the programs available to them. He met with Department Heads to discuss programs and activities the institution offers. Mr. Heaphy thanked staff, volunteers and CRB members for their leadership in the area of reentry and spoke about his office's community outreach efforts to support the Department of Justice's crime prevention and prisoner reentry programs. Mr. Heaphy stressed his commitment to keeping USP Lee and the community safe through the prosecution of inmates who are involved in serious or violent misconduct or who file frivolous lawsuits against staff.

Criminal Justice Class Visits FCI Milan

FCI Milan recently hosted a visit by criminal justice students from the Kaplan Career Institute in Dearborn, Michigan. The purpose of the visit was to learn about different careers in the criminal justice field.

Executive Assistant Fereti Semaia and Unit Manager Arturo Aviles provided the group with an overview and history of FCI Milan and discussed career opportunities with the BOP. The students toured housing units, the Education and Recreation Departments, the inmate electronic law library, Religious Services, and the Residential Drug Abuse and the Life Connections programs. They had the opportunity to observe evening activities and talk with evening watch staff who shared their career experiences. The students were impressed with institution operations and the variety of programs available to the inmate population.

Reentry Events

FCC Lompoc

On May 3, FCC Lompoc hosted the first meeting of the Central Coast Reentry Roundtable (CCRR), developed and facilitated by Reentry Affairs Coordinators Jennifer Besse and Maria Wolfe. The CCRR, comprised of local and national community organizations, was established to help provide services to offenders releasing to Lompoc and surrounding communities. During the meeting, participants discussed FCC Lompoc's Substance Abuse Treatment program; the Central District of California's new "STAR" reentry program; the California Prison Industry Authority's (CPIA) Inmate Employability Program; and reentry and transitional service efforts of the U.S. Probation Office for the Eastern District of California. CCRR partners include George Cardona, Chief Assistant United States Attorney; Hubert Alvarez, Supervisory U.S. Probation Officer; Paul Baum, CPIA; Carmen Fraser, Goodwill Industries Ex-

Offender Program; Jose Velasco, Social Security Administration; Marci Powers, San Luis Obispo County Anti-Gang Coordinator; Dr. Valerie Skinner-Martin, California Department of Rehabilitation; and several non-profit agencies.

Central Coast Reentry Roundtable participants

FCI Mendota

On May 31, FCI Mendota held a mock job fair at the satellite camp. Volunteers from the community, including the City of Mendota, California State University-Fresno, West Hills Community College, Fresno Employment Center, Institute of Technology, CAN Independent Representatives, and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, participated in the fair. They provided information on a variety of topics and conducted practice interviews with inmates. The event was coordinated by the Education Department, with assistance of staff from several departments.

Leadership Programs

FCI Bennettsville

On June 7, FCI Bennettsville held a graduation ceremony for 18 staff members who successfully completed the institution's "Masters," ("Moving, And Striving Towards Excellence, Respect, and Success") class, a 12-month leadership development training program. The participants, both supervisory and non-supervisory, learned a variety of leadership principles and focused on self-examination, performance output, ethical leadership, management of staff and inmates, decision making, communication, and public speaking.

Facilities Manager Maxwell Prevatte was the graduation's keynote speaker and discussed the importance of owning one's successes, as well as failures. Southeast Regional Director Raymond Holt congratulated staff via video-conference and encouraged them to utilize the knowledge and skills they have acquired and to share their experience with other staff. Each graduate received a certificate of completion, and several were recognized for their level of achievement: R. Andrew Tietjen, Drug Abuse Treatment Specialist, received a "Summa Cum Laude" award, and Tonigekwa Nichols, Warden's Secretary, received a "Magna Cum Laude" award. Warden Darlene Drew concluded the ceremony by encouraging the graduates with the quote, "If you can believe it and work hard for it, you can achieve it!"

FCI Big Spring

FCI Big Spring Diversity and Leadership retreat participants

On May 16, FCI Big Spring sponsored its first Diversity and Leadership Retreat. The theme of the program was Mahatma Gandhi's words, "We must become the change we want to see in the world." Members of the Affirmative Action Committee presented talks on personality and leadership, stress management and work-life balance, and diversity and inclusion. A panel, including Debbye Valverde, Executive Director, Big Spring Chamber of Commerce; Terry Hanson, Executive Vice-President, Howard College; Linda Sjogren, Big Spring City Attorney; and Stephen Saldivar, Superintendent, Big Spring Independent School District, discussed the role of individual characteristics in effective leadership and traits of highly effective leaders. Other sessions included a presentation on health, wellness, and stress management strategies by Dr. Jody Reid, Director of Back in Motion Chiropractic and stress relief relaxation exercises by Rhett Hutto, a certified yoga instructor. The retreat ended with a 30-day challenge for staff to "pay it forward" by taking the lessons learned at the retreat and implementing them at the institution.

FCI Beckley Holds Volunteer Banquet

On May 31, FCI Beckley held its annual Volunteer Appreciation Banquet. The theme was "Volunteers – Our Shining Stars." Supervisor of Education Bonita Bowman served as mistress of ceremonies, Supervisory Chaplain Douglas Largent provided opening and closing prayers, and the Beckley Civil Air Patrol Division Honor Guard posted the colors. Each volunteer was recognized for their commitment and service, and Associate Warden Bonita Mosley presented the Volunteer of the Year award to Anita Pflieger, an education volunteer who tutors inmates preparing for their GED. The guest speaker was a camp inmate who expressed gratitude to the volunteers on behalf of the entire inmate population. Staff Psychologist Kristi Williams-Dumas provided musical entertainment during the program.

FCC Butner Holds Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month Program

L. to R.: Khali Khalifa, API Program Manager; Radha Varadan; Smitha Prasad; and AW Jennifer Saad

On May 31, FCC Butner held an Asian Pacific Islander (API) Month commemorative program titled, "Classical Asian Music." Associate Warden Jennifer Saad provided opening remarks. API Program Manager/Diversity Management Instructor Khali Khalifa introduced guest speaker Smitha Prasad, a classical Indian vocalist. Ms. Prasad, who has performed in India and the United States, gave an overview of classical music styles in Asia, and concluded her talk by demonstrating Carnatic vocal techniques with Dr. Siri Varadan, a teacher of Carnatic music. Their performance was followed by a Northern Indian "Kathak" dance by Radha Varadan. The program included an Eastern Asia ethnic food tasting. Ms. Khalifa made closing remarks and introduced a special guest, Dr. Farrukh Hakeem, a Professor of Criminal Justice at Shaw University and author of "Policing Muslim Communities."
