HIGHLIGHTS

Susan M. Hunter Scholarship Recipients

The Association of State Correctional Administrators (ASCA) recently announced recipients of its 2012 Susan M. Hunter Correctional Scholarships. Several children of BOP employees were selected to receive either initial scholarship awards of $1000 or renewal (continuation) scholarship awards of $500.

Recipients of initial $1000 scholarship awards were:

Thomas "Seth" Askew (parent - Nancy Askew, Complex Warden's Secretary, FCC Butner, NC): Seth graduated from Granville Central High School in June 2012. He is a member of the National Honor Society; National Spanish Honor Society; National Technical Honor Society; President, Future Business Leaders of America; and Vice-President, International Club. He plans to major in Physics at the University of North Carolina in Greensboro.

Ronnie D. Garcia II (parent - Maria Montoya, Information Technology Specialist, FCI Marianna, FL): Ronnie is enrolled at Miles College in Fairfield, Alabama, and plans to major in Political Science with a minor in International Studies. He is a Scholar of the Miles College Community Center of Academic Excellence program, has studied abroad in India and Dubai, and was selected for United States Representative Terri Sewell's Congressional Internship. He serves as a student mentor and is a talented football player, receiving both sports and academic scholarships.

Mission of the Bureau of Prisons
It is the mission of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to protect society by confining offenders in the controlled environments of prisons and community-based facilities that are safe, humane, cost-efficient, and appropriately secure, and that provide work and other self-improvement opportunities to assist offenders in becoming law-abiding citizens.

Emily Roberson (parent - Kyle Roberson, Education Technician, FPC Yankton, SD): Emily graduated from Bon Homme High School as class Valedictorian; she is a member of the National Honor Society and a four-time member of the All-State Jazz Band. Ms. Roberson has volunteered her musical talents on the trumpet to play Taps for military funerals and other memorial services. She plans to major in Sustainability at the University of South Dakota in Vermillion, South Dakota.

Alexander Saffran (parent - Jody Klein-Saffran, Research Analyst and Administrator for the Bureau's Institution Review Board, Office of Research and Evaluation; Information, Policy and Public Affairs Division, Central Office): Alex is a member of the National Honor Society and the National Science Honor Society. He plans to major in psychology at the University of Rochester in Rochester, New York, starting in the fall.

The following individuals won $500 scholarship renewal awards:

Caleb Davis (parents - Peggy Davis, Food Service Assistant, and Patrick Davis, retired Mentor Coordinator, FCI Waseca, MN);

Benjamin Patton (parent - Kevin Patton, Case Manager, FCI Greenville, IL);

Amy Atkinson (parent - Teresa Atkinson, Correctional Counselor, FCI Talladega, AL); and Jesse Qualliotine (parents - Roy Qualliotine, National Victim Witness Coordinator, and Dominique Raia, Senior Counsel, Office of General Counsel, Central Office).

Congratulations and best wishes to all award winners!

In Memoriam: Martin “Marty” Weinfuss

On August 4, Martin “Marty” Weinfuss, FCI Fort Worth Case Manager, passed away following a courageous battle with cancer. He was 56 years old. Mr. Weinfuss began his BOP career as a Case Manager at FCI Fort Worth in 1991.

He is survived by his wife, Renee, and daughters Cassidy, Bethany, and Stephanie. Cards and letters of condolence can be sent to the attention of Amy Shaw, Warden’s Secretary, FCI Fort Worth, 3150 Horton Road, Fort Worth, Texas, 76119.

Reentry Initiative Strategy in South Carolina

On August 8, The Honorable Bill Nettles, United States Attorney, and Beth Drake, First Assistant U.S. Attorney, for the District of South Carolina, hosted a roundtable discussion to develop a reentry initiative strategy for federal offenders releasing to South Carolina. The Bureau was represented by Warden Kenny Atkinson and Reentry Affairs Coordinator (RAC) Edith Grice-Peay (FCI Edgefield); Warden

Darlene Drew and RAC Jervis Steamer (FCI Bennettsville); Warden Mildred Rivera and RAC Dwight Newbould (FCI Estill); and Acting Warden Timothy Johnson and RAC David Potts (FCI Williamsburg). During the meeting, Southeast Region Reentry Affairs Administrator Myra Lowery facilitated a discussion on obstacles to successful reentry.

The meeting was a result of the Southeast Regional Reentry Executive Leadership Workshop held this past June, where attendees were challenged to discuss and develop federal reentry planning and implementation ideas for their district/state. The United States Attorney's Office, Federal Probation Offices, and the Bureau are working together to address various issues, including how to obtain proper identification for offenders releasing to South Carolina. A second meeting, to be held in September, will be hosted by FCI Edgefield.

MDC Guaynabo Holds Graduation Ceremony

On July 24, MDC Guaynabo's Education Department hosted the 2012 Achievement Day graduation ceremony for inmates who completed the GED, English as a Second Language, HVAC, and Parenting programs. The theme, "Character and Values Count," reflects part of the Puerto Rico government's "Tus Valores Cuentan" initiative that promotes trust, respect, responsibility, fairness, kindness, and civility in the community. Eustaquio Babilonia, Chief, United States Probation Officer, was the guest speaker; he encouraged the graduates to continue to strive for their goals and never give up.

Mock Job Fairs

MDC Guaynabo

On July 24, MDC Guaynabo's Education Department held a mock job fair for female inmates. Reentry Affairs Coordinator Haydee Batista addressed the participants and gave a brief overview of the institution's reentry initiative. Representatives from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, One Stop Career Center, Citi Financial Services, Office of Occupational Development, Volunteers of America, and Puma Gas Stations, conducted practice interviews and shared employment information.

MDC Guaynabo staff with mock job fair participants

USP McCreary

On August 2, USP McCreary's Education Department sponsored a mock job fair. Representatives from local organizations and businesses, including job placement specialists, educators, employers, and bankers, participated in practice interviews with USP and camp inmates. The volunteers were impressed how well-prepared the inmates were and how they conducted themselves during the interviews.

Staff Serve the Community

USP Atwater

On August 5, USP Atwater Lieutenant Christian Lepe observed two adults fighting in front of a store. Lt. Lepe called 911 and assisted a police officer who had been assaulted by one of the individuals. The suspect, who ran away, was apprehended later. The Merced Police Department commended Lt. Lepe for his quick actions.

FCI Mendota

On August 7, FCI Mendota staff attended the annual National Night Out, sponsored by the Mendota Police Department. The event is an opportunity for law enforcement, emergency services, victims services, and victims rights agencies to provide information on crime and prevention programs to the community. Information about the Bureau's mission and career opportunities was provided by Executive Assistant Ian Connors and Lieutenant Christopher Marlow. They also distributed an educational pamphlet, "Drugs: A Road to Prison," created by FCI Mendota staff.

L. to R.: Executive Assistant Ian Connors, Police Chief Gerald Galvin, Mayor Robert Silva, City Manager Bryce Adkins, and Lieutenant Chris Chris Marlow

FCI Williamsburg

FCI Williamsburg's Black Affairs Program recently sponsored a food drive to benefit the Ark's Food Pantry that provides food to the needy in the area. On July 31, Melissa Harris-Arnold, Black Affairs Program Manager, and Youndia Randolph, Alternate Black Affairs Program Manager, delivered more than 200 pounds of canned food and non-perishable item to the Ark's Food Pantry. Staff at the food pantry thanked FCI Williamsburg for the donation that will feed needy families in Williamsburg County.

L. to R.: Youndia Randolph, Alternate Black Affairs Program Manager; Melissa Harris-Arnold, Black Affairs Program Manager, and Margaret Barr
