MCFP Springfield Holds OES Training

MCFP Springfield recently hosted its 4th annual Offender Employment Specialist training. The goal of the training was to identify tools, strategies, and best-practices for improving offender employment outcomes. The program began with opening remarks by Warden Linda Sanders, followed by a “poverty simulation exercise” facilitated by staff from the Ozarks Area Community Action Corporation (OACAC). The exercise is a tool used to educate individuals about the day-to-day reality of life with little money and a lot of stress. Guest speakers included Green County Drug Court Commissioner Peggy Davis, several ex-offenders, community resource specialists, and local employers. Representatives from the BOP, Missouri State Probation, Ozarks Correctional Center, OACAC, and other employment partners participated in the training.
